Asking for a Raise in Salary

I hope this email finds you well. I am writing to formally request a review of my current salary, as I believe my contributions and achievements at CashPoint warrant consideration for an increase.

Given my performance, the added value I bring to the team, and industry salary benchmarks for my role, I would like to discuss the possibility of adjusting my compensation to reflect these contributions. I am confident that this adjustment would align with my responsibilities and the market standards for my position.

Please let me know a suitable time for a meeting. Thank you for considering my request, and I look forward to your feedback.

Best regards,
Mehul Singh

Resignation Notice

Dear Dev_Solanki ,

I hope this email finds you well. I am writing to formally announce my resignation from my position as QA Analyst CashPoint, effective 20-1-2024.

This decision was not an easy one, as I have greatly valued my time at CashPoint Point and the opportunities I've had to grow both professionally and personally. I am truly grateful for the support, guidance, and camaraderie I've experienced here.

I hope to stay in touch and wish you and the team continued success in the future.

Please let me know how I can help during this transition period. I look forward to staying connected.

Sincerely,
Mehul Singh
QA Analyst
